MESSAGE

Babasaheb Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the Chief Architect of Indian Constitution was a scholar par excellence, a philosopher, a visionary, an emancipator and a true nationalist. He led a number of social movements to secure human rights to the oppressed and depressed sections of the society. He stands as a symbol of struggle for social justice.

The Government of Maharashtra has done a highly commendable work of publication of volumes of unpublished works of Dr. Ambedkar, which have brought out his ideology and philosophy before the Nation and the world.

In pursuance of the recommendations of the Centenary Celebrations Committee of Dr. Ambedkar, constituted under the chairmanship of the then Prime Minister of India, the Dr. Ambedkar Foundation (DAF) was set up for implementation of different schemes, projects and activities for furthering the ideology and message of Dr. Ambedkar among the masses in India as well as abroad.

The DAF took up the work of translation and publication of the Collected Works of Babasaheb Dr. B.R. Ambedkar published by the Government of Maharashtra in English and Marathi into Hindi and other regional languages. I am extremely thankful to the Government of Maharashtra's consent for bringing out the works of Dr. Ambedkar in English also by the Dr. Ambedkar Foundation.

Dr. Ambedkar's writings are as relevant today as were at the time when these were penned. He firmly believed that our political democracy must stand on the base of social democracy which means a way of life which recognizes liberty, equality and fraternity as the principles of life. He emphasized on measuring the progress of a community by the degree of progress which women have achieved. According to him if we want to maintain democracy not merely in form, but also in fact, we must hold fast to constitutional methods of achieving our social and economic objectives. He advocated that in our political, social and economic life, we must have the principle of one man, one vote, one value.

There is a great deal that we can learn from Dr. Ambedkar's ideology and philosophy which would be beneficial to our Nation building endeavor. I am glad that the DAF is taking steps to spread Dr. Ambedkar's ideology and philosophy to an even wider readership.

I would be grateful for any suggestions on publication of works of Babasaheb Dr. Ambedkar.

PREFACE

The present volume of the Speeches and Writings of Bharat Ratna Dr. B.R. Ambedkar contains his Dictionary of the Pali language and Pali Grammar. The Dictionary and Grammar are certainly valuable aids to the speeches. Pali was indeed the lingua franca of the Buddhist India. It has close affinity to Marathi. As such, the study of Pali has much relevance to the contemporary Marathi. In compiling the Dictionary of Pali language and its Grammar, Dr. Ambedkar had in mind the project of promoting the study of the Buddhist India which is part of the ancient Hindu culture. As is well-known, Buddha is the 10th incarnation of God. This dictionary is a testimony and a tribute to the mind of Dr. Ambedkar that was deeply rooted in the Indian soil.

I hope the students of the Buddhist literature will find the present volume useful to quench the thirst of knowledge.

FOREWORD

The present volume of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's writings contain the following important documents -

1) Grammar of the Pali Language was found printed by Dr. Ambedkar himself but was not released for sale.

2) (a) Dictionary of the Pali words in English and (b) in four languages.

3) Booklet printed and published by Dr. Ambedkar himself, for the followers of Buddhism.

It appears from the collection in part two (b) that Dr. Ambedkar could not complete the work of Pali Dictionary in 4 languages which he planned for the students of Buddhism.

The unpublished writings of Dr. Ambedkar as a whole, though incomplete are useful for the students of Philology. The curious student's may think of advancing this study further.

The Government is committed to finalise the remaining work of Dr. Ambedkar's writings and speeches and I hope this will be brought out at the earliest. The translation project is also in process.

The work of Dr. Ambedkar will prove to be a source of inspiration for younger generation and will help strengthening the roots of democracy in this country.

EDITORIAL

The present volume of the writings and speeches of Dr. Ambedkar contains his compilation of the Pali grammar and Pali dictionary. Dr. Ambedkar had profound fascination for Buddha and his teachings. The origin and the growth of Buddhist thought is a memorable chapter in Indian history. Buddhist texts are in Sanskrit and Pali. It was therefore the effort of Dr. Ambedkar to make this literature accessible to Indians in general and to admirers of Buddhism in particular.

Compiliation of a dictionary of words and phrases of a language, no longer a spoken language, is an enterprise fraught with difficulties. Dr. Ambedkar was past 50 when he started the compilation of the Dictionary. It was an effort comparable to the effort of Dr. Samuel Johnson who attempted his dictionary of English language in 1755. Dr. Johnson had compiled the dictionary on the threshold of becoming the world language. Pali, though the lingua franca of the Buddhist world, is a dead language. In support of a living language, authority for correct sense and words, is always at our elbow, in the chat of our domestics or in the converse of the passengers at our street door, in colleges of learned and in stables of menials; in lanes of a city and in remote hamlets. Therefore phrases and idoms of people are easily available. That is not the case in respect of a dead language which has many pitfalls. Words and phrases of a dead language, are exercises in reconstruction of history, they are passages to times past and pathways to the sociology and culture of the ages gone by. The Dictionary of the Pali language taken up by Dr. Ambedkar for compilation when he was past 50, shows his indomitable spirit to look into the past, in order to know the present and to see the light for the future.

It is relevant to note that literature on Buddhism is a part of the heritage of Indian culture. It would be interesting to sum up the history of the Pali Language. According to Buddhist tradition, Pali was the dialect of Magadha and that it was the language in which Gautam Buddha preached. Originally, a mere provincial idiom, the Magadhi language was raised to the dignity of a classical language and is regarded by Buddhists of the whole world with the feeling of veneration, like the Roman language. R. C. Childers pointed out that the existing Pali literature is of great importance; it is valuable alike to the philologists, the historians, to the students of folkore and the students of comparitive religion.

The Buddhist scriptures are called "Tripitaka" and are divided into Sutta, Vinay and Abhidhamma. The three baskets form a canon of the holy writ. According to Childers, this canon of holy writ are invested with all the sanctity of a canon by Buddhists. They are revered as containing the word of Buddha and are the ultimate appeal on all questions of belief and conduct. These baskets are estimated to be about eleven times that of the Bible, and three times of the size of the Mahabharat and are able to treat in great detail of all the relations of human life. According to Childers, the author of the first Pail - English Dictionary, the doctrine they contain is consistent throughout and set forth with logical accuracy.

When the great missionary Mahindra went to Ceylon in B.C. 307, he carried with him, not only the Tripitaka but the Arthakatka which had grown up around the Tripitaka during two and a half centuries that had passed since Buddha's death. Mahindra tried to translate these commentaries from Pali into Sinhalese, the latter of which continued to exist in Ceylon for many centuries while the Pali version disappeared. In the fifth century, Mahindra's Sinhales commentaries were retranslated by the famous Buddhaghosa, 'one of the most extraordinary men that Buddhism has produced,' as Childeres rates him. The Sinhalese translation in the meantime disappeared. It is recorded by Childers that the Sinhalese commentaries disappeared in the twelth century during the invasion of Ceylon by the Malabar princess. The princess who invaded Ceylon, one after another, temporarily obtained sovereignty over the island. They were the determind foes of Buddhism and are stated to have systematically effected the destruction of all the sacred books of Buddhism they could lay hands on. Among this Buddhist Literature, there were the Tripitakas, the Pali commentaries of Buddhaghosa and the Sinhalese commentaries of Mahendra. Tripitakas and Buddhaghosa's commentaries were first replaced from Burmah while Sinhalese commentaries existed only in Ceylon; and once destroyed could not be replaced. Buddhaghosa's commentaries contain much of the matter 'as old as Tripitaka itself' and are 'rich in history and folklore and abound in varied information which throws abundant light on the social and moral conditions of ancient India (Childers).

Besides the Pali literature mentioned above, few titles more noteworthy deserve mention. Dipavamsa and Mahavamsa are first in importance. Next in importance is Milind Panha, the Questions of King Milind who is identified with certainty with Bactrian King (Minander).

This work records familiarity with Greek names and places and records a religious discussion between venerable Nagasena and King Milind. Next in imporatnce is Visuddhi

Magga which is fairly called as an Encyclopadia of Buddhist doctrine.

The Pali grammatical work is very extensive and centres around the famous Grammarian Kachayana, which is admittedly the oldest Pali Grammar. It is said, there are 60 or 70 grammatical works in Pali. In Abhidhammappadipika, a vocabulary of nouns on the model of Sanskrit Amarkosha by a Sinhalese Buddhist of 12th Century, is found.

The discovery of Sanskrit literature in Nepal is due to the great poineering work of Brian H. Hodgson. His notices of the language, literature and religion of Nepal and Tibet, first appeared in 1828, and his essays began to appear in 1837. Besides, many western scholars including Bournouf, Fousball, Lassen, Spiegel, Clough, not to forget Weber, Senart, Kuhn and others have enormously contributed to the scholarship of Buddhist literature. It would not be out of place to mention the services of those great masters including Max Muller, Mr. and Mrs. Rhys Davids, Dr. Fleet and several others who dedicated their lives to the scholarship of Buddhist studies. It should not be forgotten that it is due to the lifelong endeavour of these geniuses that the present generation is indebted to the scholarship of the Pali Language.

It is in the light of the writings of those towering scholars that we have to search the gems of Pali scholarship; and Dr. Ambedkar's efforts for illuminating the light of Buddhist studies should be viewed accordingly. The justification for bringing out the dictionary of Pali language lies in the fact that Dr. Ambedkar had his roots in the Indian soil, and the Pali language is an indispensable key to unlock the secrets of Buddhist India.

This volume includes Dr. Ambedkar's compilation of Pali grammar. In examining a dead language like Latin or Sanskrit, grammer of that language is to know syntax and style. Grammar throws light on words and phrases, it unfolds thought processes and shows the social mind in evolution.

To the lovers of Pali language and to those who are interested in the history of Buddhism, this volume will prove to be of interest and inspiration.

(i) a consonant is dropped at the end of a word. e.g. :– भगवान् → भगवा.

(ii) But the ending म् and ending त् or द् of a pronoun are substituted by an anuswara e.g. :– बुद्धम् → बुद्धं (to Buddha); एतत् → (द) → एतं (this, that).

(iii) The ending visarga (:) or स् or र् preceded by अ is changed to ओ, together with the preceding अ; and is dropped when preceded by other vowels. e.g. सर्वतः → सब्बतो; बुद्धाः → बुद्धा; रुचिः → रुचि; भिक्षु → भिक्खु.

(iv) Ending द् of a pronoun (सब्बनाम) or in an उपसर्ग (prefix or suffix) and at the end र्, often reappear when followed by vowels. e.g. :– एतं + अहोसि = एतदहोसि (this happened); ताव + एत्थ = तावदेत्थ (also); पातो + एव = पातरेव, पातोऽव.

(v) य्, व्, म्, त्, and द् → are often inserted as revivals from sanskrit forms or by analogy to such insertions.
सकि + एव = सकिदेव; पुन + एव = पुनरेव, पुनदेव, याव + अत्थं = यावतत्थं

शब्दविचार (Etymology)

Parts of speech :–

In pali there are eight parts of speech as in English though the Pali Grammarians do not classify them in the same way. Their general classification is :–

I. Nouns (नाम) :– This group includes substantives, pronouns and adjectives. Pronouns are simple pronouns when they stand alone in a sentence, and admit of all genders as they stand for every person or thing which are in different genders. Pronouns become adjectives when they qualify other nouns. Pronouns have no vocative forms. Adjectives in Pali are treated like nouns because they take all the inflections of the nouns and are declinable. Almost all pronouns become adjectives when they are used before a substantive of the same gender, number and case. As the adjectives qualify nouns, which are of different genders and numbers, they must agree with their substantives in gender, number and case.

Nouns are divided into five classes, viz. :–

(i) नामनाम = Substantives and proper nouns (includes common, proper and abstract nouns).

(ii) सब्बनाम = Pronouns.

(iii) समासनाम = Compound nouns formed by combination of two or more words. e.g. राजपुत्त.

(iv) पद्धितनाम = Derivatives from nouns or Secondary Derivatives are formed from a substantive or a primary derivative (verbal derivative) by adding another suffix to it. e.g. नावा (ship) + इका (in the meaning of engaged) = नाविक (sailor).

(v) कितकनाम = Verbal derivatives otherwise called Primary Derivative, are formed from the verbal root itself by adding suffixes. e.g. दा (To giver) + (अक = दायक (giver); नी (to lead) + तु = नेतु (leader). About 75% of Pali nouns are derived from Sanskrit.

A. As in English, in Pali there are three genders and two numbers.

(i) Gender (लिंग)

(i) Masculine = पुल्लिङ्ग

(ii) Feminine = इत्थिलिङ्ग

(iii) Neuter = नपुंसकलिङ्ग

(ii) Number (वचन) (i) Singular = एकवचन

(ii) Plural = बहुवचन

B. Nouns in Pali are declined in eight cases according to their gender and termination. Eight cases (विभक्ति) namely :–

(i) पठमा (प्रथमा) = Nominative, denotes the subject or कर्ता.

(ii) दुतिया (द्वितीया) = Accusative, denotes the object or कर्म.

(iii) ततिया (तृतीया) = Ablative of agent and of instrument, denotes the person or thing with or by whom something is performed. कारण, साधन.

(iv) चतुत्थी (चतुर्थी) = Dative, the person to whom or for whom something is given संप्रदान (to, at, towards).

(v) पञ्ञमी (पंचमी) = Ablative of separation अपादान.

(vi) छट्ठी (षष्ठी) = Genitive or possessive in English. संबंध.

(vii) सत्तमी (सप्तमी) = Locative shows the place, in, on, upon, at, etc. अधिकरण.

(viii) आलपन (संबोधन) = Vocative is used to address person.

The inflections or case endings vary according to gender and number e.g., masculine words or stems ending in A (अ) declined as follows :–

Masculine Nouns ending in A (अ). We may take Buddha and decline it thus :–

Case	Singular (Terminations)	Plural (Terminations)
Nominative (पठमा)	बुद्धो (ओ)	बुद्धा (आ)
Accusative (दुतिया)	बुद्धं (म्)	बुद्धे (ए)
Instrumental (ततिया)	बुद्धेन (एन)	बुद्धेहि, बुद्धेभि (एहि, एभि)
Dative (चतुत्थी)	बुद्धाय, बुद्धस्स (आय, स्स)	बुद्धनं (नं)
Ablative (पञ्चमी)	बुद्धम्हा, बुद्धस्मा, बुद्धा, (म्हा, स्मा, आ)	बुद्धेहि, बुद्धेभि (एहि, एभि)
Genitive (छट्ठी)	बुद्धस्स (स्स)	बुद्धानं (आनं)
Locative (सत्तमी)	बुद्धे, बुद्धस्मिं बुद्धम्हि, (ए, स्मिं, म्हि)	बुद्धेसु (एसु)
Vocative (आलपन)	बुद्ध, बुद्धा (आ)	बुद्धा (आ)

Masculine nouns ending in इ and उ are declined differently. So also feminine and neuter nouns are declined differently depending on their endings.

WORDS IN GROUPS

II. Nouns (नाम) :– Nons in the following groups are shown with their nominative singular endings in order to help the student in finding their respective genders. The words ending in 'O' are masculine; most of those ending in 'a' (आ) are feminine : those ending with 'N' (अनुस्वार) are neuter. The adjectives are given in their stems with the figure 3 after them, in order to indicate that they should be declined according to the gender number and case of their substantives. Neutral nouns are shown by 'nt'.

A[2] PRONOUNS

Pronouns are words used, to replace nouns or substantives, to avoid repitition. The word Pronoun means "for a noun" or "instead of a noun". Pronous admit of all genders, as they stand for every person or thing which are in different genders. They are also declined as nouns, with the only difference that there is no Vocative forms. They are classified into various groups by the English Grammarians, but for our purposes, we will restrict to only the important groups, viz :-

I. (1) Personal Pronouns :

(i) First personal – "Amha" अम्ह (अस्मद्)

(ii) Second personal – "Tumha" तुम्ह (युष्मद्)

(m.f.n.) : – Thou, you.

(iii) Third personal – "Ta" त (तद्) (m): when used as a demonstrative pronoun, meaning 'that', it is declined differently in three genders.

No. (i) and (ii) are declined similarly in all the three genders.

(2) Relative Pronouns :

Relative Pronouns : - Such as 'who', 'which', 'that', so called because they relate or refer to a noun, which has gone before. These are declined like nouns ending in अ (m,n.) or आ (f) with some differences. In the declension of masculine Pronouns, the Nominative and Accusative plural termination is ए; terminations for the Dative and Genitive plural are एसं, एसानं; while in the singular the following terminations are absent :– आय of Dative, आ of the Ablative and ए of the Locative.

In the neuter gender, the pronouns are declined like masculine nouns with slight change in Nominative and Accusative plural their terminations being ए or आनि.

The feminine base is formed by adding आ to the masculine base and are declined like कञ्ञा.

There are no vocative forms.

(3) Demonstrative Pronouns :

This, that, those, etc. words used to point out the object or objects to which they refer.

त (that)–declined in these genders with certain changes; addition of prefix इ to त gives इत (that or this) which is also declined like त.

A[3] ADJECTIVES

Adjectives are describing words and add something to the meaning of a noun i.e., they qualify the nouns. Hence they are treated as nouns and carry all the infletions of the nouns. As the adjectives qualify nouns which are of different genders and numbers, they must agree with their substantives in gender, number and case. Roughly they could be classified thus (according as their derivations–from) :–

(1) Pronouns becoming adjectives when used before a substantive of the same gender, number and case – Pronominal adjectives.

(2) Adjectives formed, from verbal bases. They are also called participles. Like verbs they are divided into Present, Past, and Future Tenses; and each group is divided into Active and Passive voices. Becoming adjectives, they are declined in all the genders–Verbal Adjectives or participles.

(3) Adjectival Nouns are often used as adjectives : they become substantives when they stand alone in the place of person or the thing they qualify. They are decline in all genders.

(4) Adjectives proper, qualify nouns and must agree with their substantives in gender, number and case.

B. VERBS

I. Verb– आख्यात is an integral and important part of speech; verbs are divided into groups called धातुगण. In Pali there are seven Conjugations, though some Grammarians mention ten as in Sanskrit. Each group has one or more conjugational signs (विकरण), which come between the root (धातु) and the verbal termination (प्रत्यय), Thus the base or अंग of a verb is formed by the combination of the root (धातु) with its conjugational sign, to which is added the verbal termination, as for instance:–

पच् + ति = पच् + अ + ति = पचति = cooks.

The Pali Grammarians represented roots with an ending vowel as गम, वस etc. and not as गम् or वस्, as in Sanskrit. But the end अ of a root is dropped when the conjugational sign is added. Before the first conjugational sign अ), the penultimate short and the ending vowel take their गुण, अ has no गुण or strengthening. The गुण of इ, ई, is ए; and of उ, ऊ, is ओ. Thus :– नी (to carry) is a root + अ conjugational sign + ने + अ. भू (to be) + अ = भो + अ → भवति, ∴ ओ followed by अ becomes अब and thus भू → भवति.

Root-groups (धातुगण) with their signs according to Pali-course.

1st	Conjugation	–	a, अ, भुवादिगण
2nd	Conjugation	–	m : a, अनुस्वार : अ : रुधादिगण
3rd	Conjugation	–	ya : य, दिवादिगण
4th	Conjugation	–	no : nu : una : स्वादिगण
5th	Conjugation	–	na, णा : कियादिगण
6th	Conjugation	–	o, yira : ओ, यिर : तनादिगण
7th	Conjugation	–	e, aya : ए, अय : चुरादिगण

Number of roots are included in the first and the seventh group. Pali verbs are conjugated, in three Tenses, two Voices, two Numbers and three Persons :–

1. Tenses or काल

(i) Present tense – वत्तमानकाल

(ii) Past tense – अतीतकाल

(iii) Future tense – अनागतकाल

2. Voices or प्रयोग

(i) Active – कत्तुकारक (कर्तरि) : a transitive verb that represents its subject as acting, is in Active Voice. Here the Subject or कत्ता takes Nominative and the Object कम्म is in Accusative (दुतिया), and the verb takes the same gender and/number as the Subject – e.g., अहं बुद्धं नमामि; सा बुद्धं नमति; तुम्हे बुद्धं नमथ.

(ii) Passive Voice – कर्मणि प्रयोग.

A Transitive verb, that represents its subject as being passively acted upon, is in Passive Voice. The sign of the Passive Voice is य (ya) irrespective of the conjugation, and is added directly to the root. The final अ of a root is dropped and the remaining ending consonant and the य of the Passive undergo the necessary changes (according to rules of change).

In the Passive Voice, in a sentence, the subject (कर्ता) takes the Instrumental (ततिया) Case and the Object (कर्म) takes the Nominative Case, and the verb takes the same person and number as that of the Object :

The Attanopade (आत्मनेपद) terminations are frequently used in the Passive Voice; but it is optional.

Examples of Verbs in Passive Voice :–

करीयति = is done or made	आकड्ढीयति = is dragged or drawn
कसीयति = is ploughed	दीयति = is given
देसीयति = is preached	मारीयति = is killed
आहरीयति = is brought	वन्दीयति = is worshipped
हरीयति = is carried	किणीयति = is bought

बन्धीयति = is tied विक्किणीयति = is sold

भासीयति = is told धोवीयति = is washed

भुग्जयति = is taken

(iii) Impersonal Construction, भावे प्रयोग

In this construction the Subject takes Instrumental Case and the verb always is in third person single.

Examples :– कर्तरि – नरोगच्छति

भावे – नरेन गम्मते

3. Persons :– (i) Third Person – पठम पुरिस

(ii) Second Person – मज्झिम पुरीस

(iii) First Person – उत्तम पुरीस

4. Numbers वचन :–(i) Singular

(ii) Plural

5. Padas :– (i) परम्मैपद – more commonly used

(ii) आत्मनेपद –rarely met with in literature except in poetry and in the Passive Voice.

The Padas have their own verbal terminations.

6. Moods – The manner in which a verb is used to express an action is called Mood.

(i) Imperative Mood – आज्ञार्थ –This mood is used to express command, prayer, advise, wish, blessing or proposal.

(ii) Potential Mood – विध्यर्थ – This Mood expresses probability, command, wish, prayer, hope, advise and capability. It is used in conditional or hypothetical sentences in which one statement depends on another as its reason or condition.

(iii) Conditional – संकेतार्थ (कालातिपत्ति) – The Conditional Mood is used in those hypothetical sentences in which the non-performance of action is implied :– e.g., सचे देवो वस्सिस्स धञ्ञं च तिणं च उप्पज्जिस्स – when it rains then there will be corn and grass.

Each mood has its own verbal termination depending on the number and person.

III. The Participles धातुसाधितें

The participles are either verbal adjectives, agreeing with the qualified nouns in gender, number and case or indeclinables. As usual with verbs they are classified according to tenses, as present, past and future: The Future Participle is less commonly met with. The Past Particple is the declinable past passive participle and is formed by त or इत to the root. The Pali Past Participles, listed above, are all from the Sanskrit forms directly, with modification. The past participles are used as adjective and are declined like बुद्ध (m); फल (n); कञ्ञा (f): The Indeclinable Past Participle also called the Absolutive (Pali-Course) or the Gerund (English Grammar) are formed by adding त्वा to the root. They are dealt with under Nipata or अव्यय. The Infinitive of purpose is the same thing as तुमन्त अव्यय and is indeclinable.

The numerals, allmost all of them take all the genders, with the following difference :–

(i) एक, ति, चतु take all genders but are declined differently in each gender

(ii) द्वि, पञ्च, छ, सत्त, अट्ठ, नव, दस are declined alike in all genders but only in the plural.

(iii) एकूनवीसति to नवनवुति are declined in the singular number and feminine gender only, whatever be the gender of the substantive qualified. The cardinals are treated as ordinary adjectives.

(iv) सत and सहस्स may either be used in the neutre gender, or plural in the singular number agreeing only in case with the qualified substantives or as ordinary adjectives agreeing in all respects. For multiples of सत and सहस्स, Prefix the word indicating the multiplicator and treat the compound as an adjective e.g. अट्ठसता माणवका।

(v) Multiplicative adverbs are formed by adding क्खतुं to the numerals in the sense of so many times e.g. द्विक्खतुं = twice : The word for 'once' is सकदा or सकिं.

(vi) Suffix धा may be used after numerals in the sense of ways, times, fold etc. एकधा - once, द्विधा - of two kinds : तिधा - in three ways.

Section 5

Syntax

(1) Position of words in a sentence : A sentence may contain any number of words, but a verb must necessarily be there i.e. a sentence must have two portions viz.

(i) the subject कत्ता

(ii) the predicate क्रिया

पुरिसो सयति is a complete sentence, पुरिसो being the subject and सयति the predicate. सयति being an intransitive verb does not take object, but transitive verbs must necessarily have an object (कर्म); therefore a sentence formed with transitive verb consists of three portions, e.g. :

पुरिसो (कत्ता), रूक्खं (कर्म), छिन्दति (क्रिया)

(2) In the above sentence, the subject comes first, object second and the predicate last (In an English sentence the object must come after the predicate). But there are no definite rules about the order of the words in a Pali sentence.

(3) Addressing words are very often placed first, in a sentence e.g.

(i) भन्ते, इमस्मिं सासने कति धुरानि?

(ii) So also with आसुसो

(iii) So also with भोति

(4) Interrogation is expressed by using interrogative adverbs.

(a) Pronouns or particles at the beginning of a sentence :– When there is an interrogative word in a sentence, the addressing word, if there be any, takes the second or last place.

(i) किं कथेसि, भातिका ?

(ii) अप आवुसो, अम्हाकं सत्तारं जानासि ?

(iii) किं पन, भन्ते, इदानि पि दिन्ने लभिस्सन्ती ?

(iv) कुहिं यासि, उपासक ?

(v) कहं गतों सि, आवुसो ?

(vi) को तत्थ वसति ?

(vii) कस्मा, सो सप्पो एतं न डसि

(b) Interrogation is also expressed by placing the verb first, in a sentence, followed very often by the particle नु. :– पस्सथ नु तुम्हे, भिक्खवे, अमुं महन्तं अग्गिक्खन्धं ?

(5) Words of assent are also placed at the beginning of a sentence. Addressing words in such sentences are placed next to the assenting words, e.g. :– आम, सम्म, इदानाहं विहारं गन्त्वा थेरं दिस्वा आगतोम्हि

(6) Extension of predicate, be it a single word, a phrase, or a clause is placed before the verb.

(7) The conditional particles सचे, यदि and the interjections are placed at the beginning of a sentence.

(8) Copulative च and disjunctive वा and the conditional चे are never placed at the beginning of a sentence.

(9) The following indeclinables are used correlatively :-

(i) यथा; तथा (as : so)

(ii) याव; ताव (as longas : until)

(iii) यदा; तदा (when : then)

(iv) यत्थ; तत्थ (where : there)

(10) Words qualifying the subject or object, generally come before the subject or object respectively.

Adverbs come before the verbs, but the adverbs of time always come first in a sentence.

(11) An adjective must agree with the noun it qualifies in gender, number and case.

(12) A relative pronoun must agree with its antecedent in gender, number and person.

(13) Concord.

(i) The Predicate must agree with the subject in number and person.

(ii) When there are several subjects of different persons and one verb in a sentence, the verb is put in the first person plural; and should there be no subject of the first person, the verb is put in the first person plural.

(iii) One subject may have more than one finite verb.

(iv) When there are more than one subject connected with, च in a sentence, the verb must be in plural.

(v) When an action of many is the same, but if some of them are introduced by one of the particles सह, सद्धिन् or समं or with the instrumental case, the verb follows the subject which is in the nominative.

(vi) When the subject is a collective noun the verb takes the singular form.

प्रस्तावना

बौध्दधर्माच्या प्रसाराबद्दल लोकांमध्यें ज्या दिवसापासून आतुरता उत्पन्न झाली आहे त्या दिवसापासून बौध्दधर्म म्हणजे काय, व त्याचें वाङ्मय काय आहे, व कोठें कायमिळते, यासंबधानें भारतीय जनतेमध्यें अतिशय मोठे कुतुहल दिसून येते.

कांहीं वर्ग कुतुहलाच्या मर्यादेपलिकडे गेलेले दिसतात. त्यांना बौध्द धर्माच्या वाङ्मयापेक्षा बौध्दधर्मांत पूजापाठ कशाप्रकारें होते, हें जाणून घेण्याचे एक वेडच लागलें आहे. आम्हांला बौध्दधर्माचा पूजापाठ कसा असतो यासंबंधीं कांहींतरी वाङ्मय द्या, असा सारखा तगादा लागून राहिला आहे. माझ्या शारीरिक अस्वस्थतेमुळें त्यांची जिज्ञासा पुरी करणे आतापर्यंत मला शक्य झालें नाहीं. तशांत बौध्दधर्मांतील तत्त्वज्ञानापेक्षां बौद्धधर्मांतील पूजापाठ याचा या देशांत अगदीच लोप झाला आहे. त्या कारणांमुळें या प्रश्नासंबंधीं बौध्दर्धांतील पूजापध्दति व त्यासंबंधीं गाथा कोठेंच उपलब्ध नाहीं. त्या फक्त ज्या देशामध्यें बौध्दधर्म आज प्रचलित आहे, तेथेंच मिळू शकतात.

१९५० सालीं मी सिलोनला गेलो असतांना त्या काळांत याच विषयावर भर देऊन या गाथा मी संग्रहित केल्या व माझें मित्र श्री. गुणतिलके यांना गावयास लावून त्याचे रेकार्ड बनवलें. येथें आल्यानंतर कांहीं बौध्द भिक्षूंच्या महाय्यानें या गाथामध्यें भर टाकली. आज बहुतेक सर्व गाथा या पुस्तकांत एकत्रित झाल्या आहेत, असें म्हणावयास हरकत नाहीं. येथील महाराष्ट्रीय लोकांना या गाथा समजण्यास सुलभ जाव्या म्हणून पाली गाथेचे मराठी भाषांतर एका वाजूस दिलें आहे.

हें पुस्तक "भारतीय बौध्द जन समिती" हिच्या तर्फे प्रसिध्द केलें जात आहे. या पुस्तकावरील माझें सर्व हक्क त्या समितीस दिले आहेत. जो कोणी या हक्कांचे कोणत्याहि तन्हेने उल्लंघन करील त्याच्यावर कायदेशीर इलाज केला जाईल, असा इषारा देण्याची आवश्यकता वाटतें. कारण या देशामध्यें असें लुच्चे लोक आहेत कीं, ते कानामात्रा बदलून दुसऱ्यांचें पुस्तक आपलेंच आहे म्हणून प्रसिध्द करतात. यानंतर "बौध्द संस्कार पाठ" या नांवाचें दुसरें पुस्तक याच मालेतर्फे प्रसिध्द केलें जाईल.
